Compliance Fee Refunds

The compliance fee will be refunded to you in approximately 10 working days or more after the access card(s) has been returned, provided the facility is left clean and undamaged. If the access card is lost or not returned within 5 business days, there will be a $15.00 charge withheld from the deposit.

Set-up and Clean-up

Set-up and clean-up must be accomplished between the hours listed above during rental period. All tables and chairs must be properly cleaned, returned to the storage rooms and stacked according to the signs posted in the facility. All kitchen equipment must be cleaned, and the refrigerator and freezer are to be emptied of all food items. All floors are to be swept and/or wet mopped (clear water only) on any spills as necessary and all other surfaces are to be cleaned. All personal and rental equipment must be removed by end of rental period, no exceptions. All items left will be discarded.

Access cards will be available on the morning of the rental as occupancy of the facility is only authorized on your scheduled date of rental. CCWA staff will contact renters the week prior to their rental date with further instructions.
